IMPORTANT SUMMER READING INFORMATION FOR PARENTS & CAREGIVERS

Our little library is busier than ever! To ensure a smooth experience for everyone, please review the following guidelines for summer reading programs, events, and activities.

Just a reminder that all children 14 and under must ALWAYS be accompanied by and supervised by an adult (e.g. parent, grandparent, caregiver) in the library. The only exception to this is for approved junior high volunteers.

Events & Activities

- All events and activities (except performances) are come-and-go.
- All crafts and projects must be completed by the event's scheduled end time.

Performances (Concerts, Animal Shows, etc.)

- Library capacity is limited during performances:
 - Once we reach capacity, no more people will be admitted.
- Arrive Early!: Arriving early/on time will greatly increase your chance of attending a performance, although attendance is not guaranteed. We cannot allow early admittance or reserve spaces.
 - 30 minutes before each scheduled performance, patrons will form a queue on the front porch. Tickets will be handed out on a first come, first serve basis.
 - There will BE NO LATE ADMITTANCE to any performance.
- Parents/caregivers MUST sit with their children during performances.
- Please be respectful during performances:
 - Please do not talk or be disruptive during performances.
 - Parents: please help set a good example for the kiddos!
 - Anyone causing disruptions may be asked to leave until after the performance.
- Library Services will be limited during performances.
 - During performances, completed or new reading logs can only be turned in or picked-up at the library staff's table on the front porch.
 - If you need a library card during performances, please visit the library staff table on the porch.
- Returning Materials: Library materials can be returned to the outdoor dropbox during performances.
- Strollers, Wagons, etc.: During performances, please "park" all strollers, wagons, etc. on the front porch.

- We would like to ask everyone to help us ensure that all patrons have an amazing time visiting the library. To keep the library safe and enjoyable for all, please follow these rules:
 1. No running in the aisles or around the library.
 2. Please do not push books back from the edge of shelves.
 3. Please use indoor voices while in the library.
 4. Please supervise your children at all times.

Thank you for helping us create a fun and welcoming library experience for everyone!
